

I think the program has be a great success. My telemarketing calls have virtually stopped. When getting home from work, at times, my answering machine would be filled with messages from telemarketing companies. Now the evening is also more relaxing because I am not receiving calls all evenine. Please do not do away with the policy.